Section 8 Program

January 23, 2009

The Section 8 Housing Assistance Payment Viewer website is currently being developed and tested. It is to be used in conjunction with Direct Deposit, which takes effect 02/01/09. Initial website deployment expected by mid January at which point all payees may register and view online all payments from December 2008 through the deployment date.

<http://hap.maricopahousing.org>

Registration requires the following information.

1. Standard contact information
 - a. Including an email address for the purpose of resetting your password in the event it is forgotten. Also on completing registration a confirmation email will be sent.
2. Username
3. Password

After registering you will be automatically logged in and directed to the 'Settings - Account Information' page where you need to submit the 'Access Authorization Online Form'. This form associates your website username with our Housing Assistance Payment records payee information. If at the time of registration you do not have the necessary information you may return at a future date and complete the online form.

To complete the form correctly a HAP check stub from December 2008 or January 2009 will be required so please keep a copy. The online form asks for the following information.

1. Payee Id
2. Payment # i.e. check number
3. Amount i.e. the 1st amount listed, if there's more than one transaction listed, on the check stub. See the example check as it is color-coded and the pertinent information is circled in red.
